Sanon is a famous Haitian Soccer player from Port-au-Prince. He claimed his place in World Cup history, and in the hearts of Haitian fans, by giving Haiti the lead against the legendary Italian goal-keeper, Dino Zoff. Although the Haitian team lost the game, Sanon had become a star. In four years he scored 47 of the 106 goals scored by the Haitian national team, and he went on to enjoy a successful career with Beerschoot of Antwerp, at that time a force in Belgian football.

Emmanuel Sanon on The Global Art of Soccer:

“Primarily an inspiring book on soccer art, The Global Art of Soccer delves deeper into what soccer means for the human experience.”
